Check-In/Check-Out:

- For meetings during business hours, we require the on-site contact for the organization to check-in at Reception upon arrival.
- The on-site contact should inform Reception of any miscellaneous items, such as when your caterer will arrive, or that you will be having additional guests arrive after the start of your meeting.
- A clipboard with the Check-Out Procedures will be provided to you. Please complete it at the end of your meeting and either return it to Reception or leave it in the room.
- The meeting room schedules are located on the reader board outside of each individual room, and on the Reception counter.

Kitchen/Catering/Food/Beverages:

Food and beverages are permitted in the meeting rooms, but we ask that you strictly adhere to the following policies:

- Access to a small kitchen is available so that you may set up your food for service. All food, including catered food, should be prepared, cooked and heated in advance of your meeting, not in our kitchen.
 - Note: This is a staff kitchen, but as a courtesy, we allow organizations using our conference rooms to use it as well. Organizations that reserve the Redwood conference room have priority over organizations that reserve the Oak or Maple conference rooms. If you reserve Oak or Maple and there are no meetings in Redwood, you are allowed to use the small kitchen and access it through the Redwood conference room.
- Due to the small size of the kitchen, all food is to be kept in your designated meeting room. We are not able to provide storage for food in the kitchen or in the refrigerator.
- For catering orders, you should schedule your food delivery to coordinate with your meal break and request all serving items be included with delivery.
- All catering items must be picked up at the end of your meeting and may not be left behind in the room or kitchen.
- We provide access to self-serve coffee, carafes, water pitchers, and ice in the kitchen.
- We do not supply serving platters, plates, bowls, napkins, knives, utensils, cups, mugs, glasses, etc.
- We do not allow cooking demonstrations or classes in our meeting rooms.
- NO HOT FOOD or chafing dishes should be placed on the wooden table tops.
- For meetings in Redwood and Oak, there are live microphones embedded in the tables. No liquids or food should be placed near these microphones. Reception should be informed immediately if any liquid is spilled on or near the microphones.
- No alcoholic beverages are permitted.
- You are responsible for any damages caused by food or beverages being served in the room.

Pack-in, Pack-out Policy:

- You must take all of your food and drink items with you when you leave.
- If you wish to donate your leftovers (minimum of 10 servings, wrapped in disposable containers), please make arrangements in advance with www.extrafood.org or call 415-997-9830.
- A member of your organization must be onsite for the coordination and pick up of the extra food.
